Code of Conduct

As players, parents, coaches, trainers, team administrators and board members, we pledge ourselves to the following Code of Conduct.

- I. I will cheer and offer positive, congratulatory comments at KASA competitions; otherwise any potential remarks will remain unspoken.
- II. I will honor the coaches' and referees' decisions.
- III. During games, practices and scrimmages I will leave all coaching to the coaches.
- IV. I will not verbally disrespect any KASA team member or coach, official, opponent, referee, or spectator.
- V. I will not use foul or profane language at any KASA event.
- VI. I will not display aggressive physical behavior toward any KASA team member or coach, official, opponent, referee, or spectator.
- VII. I will model clean language and clean living in my personal interactions with others.
- VIII. I will strive at all times to be a positive role model.
- IX. I agree to be a person of integrity.
- X. I agree to be held to a higher standard.
- XI. I will not use tobacco, alcohol, or illegal drugs at any KASA event.
- XII. I will not attend any KASA event while under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs.
- XIII. I will abide by house rules, program guidelines, league rules, and all such guidance.
- XIV. While I understand that KASA is a faith-based organization, and there will be devotions and prayers at practices, games, and other events, as well as other expressions of praise and faith – and that I have the right to quietly/privately/respectfully choose to not participate, I will not do or say anything to interfere with anyone else's participation.
- XV. I agree that violation of any single item herein is cause for disciplinary action. Such action may include but is not limited to: verbal caution; written warning; removal from KASA event; dismissal from KASA team, program or organization.
- XVI. Refund of any part of fees paid due to my withdrawal or dismissal, whether voluntary or by cause of disciplinary action, is solely at the discretion of KASA.
